Slope Setup & Training Prior to Events

The mogul course for spring training and for the FIS Open events will be on the same Levi Glacier run that some of the teams already trained on in October-November 2023. Since then, we have added more width and length to the course. The course is a full-scale course with four lanes and a length of 243 meters. The average snow depth on the course is – and will be - around 6 meters. Course is open for teams to train at any time until Sunday night 28th April 2024.

Official training for the FIS Open (in conjunction with Finnish Nationals and Open Masters-competition) will take place on Wednesday 24th April, with mogul- and dual mogul events on Thursday 25th- and Friday 26th April 2024.
